16. Plaintiff is filing this complaint within ninety (90) days from her receipt of this notice.

17. Plaintiff has fully complied with all administrative prerequisites for the commencement of this action.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

18. Plaintiff commenced her employment with Defendants in or about April 2011.

19. Plaintiff was based out of Defendants' Philadelphia, Pennsylvania office.

20. Throughout the course of Plaintiff's employment, Plaintiff additionally regularly worked out of her home office in Cherry Hill, New Jersey, with Defendants' knowledge and permission.

21. Plaintiff was hired as a Manager and was quickly promoted to the position of Senior Manager in or about 2012. Plaintiff consistently performed her job duties in a highly competent manner.

22. Plaintiff worked in the Life Sciences and Healthcare Services Industry in the Advisory Practice.

23. Plaintiff was amongst the oldest employees in the Life Sciences and Healthcare Services Industry in the Advisory Practice.

24. In her role as Senior Manager, Plaintiff reported to several different Partners, Principals, and Managing Directors, depending on her assignment.

25. On multiple occasions, Plaintiff informed Defendants, including, Kevin Wijayawickrama, Principal and Healthcare Sector Leader, a Sector in which Plaintiff worked, that she was interested in being promoted to the position of Managing Director.

26. In or about February 2018, Wijayawickrama informed Plaintiff that she should accept a demotion from Senior Manager to Specialist Leader.

27. Wijayawickrama informed Plaintiff that she should accept the demotion because the Healthcare Sector had too many Senior Managers. To Plaintiff's knowledge, Wijayawickrama did not make similar requests to younger Senior Managers.

28. Wijayawickrama informed Plaintiff that Plaintiff should accept the demotion despite Plaintiff having previously articulated to him her desire to be promoted to the position of Managing Director.

29. During this February 2018 meeting, Wijayawickrama further inquired of Plaintiff whether she had plans to retire. Plaintiff responded that her mother worked until she was eighty-two (82) and Plaintiff hoped she could do the same.

30. At or around this same time, Kelly Sauders, Partner, who had previously assigned many projects to Plaintiff, began communicating less frequently with Plaintiff and assigning her less work.

31. Sauders additionally began excluding Plaintiff from attending and presenting at compliance conferences at which Plaintiff had previously attended and presented. Plaintiff received no explanation as to why she was excluded from attending and presenting at these conferences.

32. Instead of Plaintiff, Defendants permitted younger and less qualified Managers and Senior Managers to attend and present.

33. On multiple occasions between February and September 2018, Defendants contacted Plaintiff to ask whether she was going to accept the demotion to Specialist Leader position. Defendants further inquired if Plaintiff was going to instead look for outside employment or remain in a Senior Manager position with the understanding that there were too many Senior Managers and, therefore, Plaintiff's employment may be terminated if she remained in that role.

34. In or about July 2018, Sauders, like Wijayawickrama, inquired as to whether Plaintiff had plans to retire. Plaintiff again responded that her mother worked until she was eighty-two (82), and she hoped to do the same.

35. In or about August 2018, upon securing a significant account for Defendants, Sauders prevented Plaintiff from working on the account and assigned it to a substantially younger and less qualified employee.

36. In or about September 2018, Plaintiff was demoted to Specialist Leader.

37. In conjunction with the demotion, Sauders continued to assign less work and responsibilities to Plaintiff. This caused Plaintiff's standing in the company to deteriorate.

38. Sauders instead assigned more work and responsibilities to substantially younger and less qualified employees.

39. In or about September 2018, Plaintiff was instructed to train substantially younger and less qualified employees to do her job.

40. In or about October 2018, Sauders assigned a substantially younger and less qualified employee to a project for a client with whom Plaintiff had previously worked and maintained a great relationship. When the employee failed to meet the client's expectations, the client requested Plaintiff's expertise on the project. Only then did Sauders instruct Plaintiff to review the work.

41. Defendants thereafter continued to remove work from Plaintiff and exclude her from meetings and communications related to her job duties.

42. Defendants assigned work and projects that had previously been assigned to Plaintiff to substantially younger and less qualified employees.

43. Defendants were trying to force Plaintiff to resign her employment due to her age.

44. On or about June 8, 2020, Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, effective June 9, 2020. Plaintiff was at her home office in New Jersey when Defendants terminated her employment.

45. The stated reason was business conditions at Defendants as a result of the COVID-19 impact.

46. Defendants' articulated reason for the termination of Plaintiff is pretext.

47. At the time of Plaintiff's termination, Defendants retained numerous substantially younger and less qualified employees.

48. Defendants assigned Plaintiff's job duties to substantially younger and less qualified employees.

49. Numerous older employees at Defendants informed Plaintiff that Defendants discriminated against older employees.

50. Defendants recently terminated and/or pushed out numerous older employees.

51. Defendants have replaced older employees with, and assigned older employees' job duties to, substantially younger and less qualified employees.

52. Defendants have a pattern or practice of demoting and/or pushing out and/or terminating older employees due to their age.

53. Plaintiff's age (63) was a determinative and motivating factor in the decision to terminate her employment.

54. As a direct and proximate result of the discriminatory conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff has in the past incurred, and may in the future incur, a loss of earnings and/or earning capacity, loss of benefits, pain and suffering, embarrassment, humiliation, loss of self-esteem, mental anguish, and loss of life's pleasures, the full extent of which is not known at this time.

55. Plaintiff has incurred and is entitled to all costs and attorneys' fees incurred as a result of the unlawful behavior complained of herein.

56. Plaintiff is now suffering and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and monetary damages as a result of the unlawful behavior complained of herein unless and until this Court grants the relief requested herein.

COUNT I - ADEA

57. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the paragraphs above, as if set forth herein in their entirety.

58. By committing the foregoing acts of discrimination against Plaintiff, Defendants violated the ADEA.

59. Defendants' violations of the ADEA were intentional and willful under the circumstances, warranting the imposition of liquidated damages.

60. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of the ADEA, Plaintiff has suffered the injuries, damages, and losses set forth herein.

61. No previous application been made for the relief requested herein.

COUNT II - NJLAD

62. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the paragraphs above, as if set forth herein in their entirety.

65. Members of Defendants' upper management had actual participation in, or willful indifference to, Defendants' wrongful conduct described herein, and their conduct warrants the imposition of punitive damages against Defendants.

66. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' discriminatory conduct, Plaintiff has sustained the injuries, damages, and losses set forth herein, and has incurred attorney's fees and costs.

67. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein.

COUNT III – PHRA

68. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the paragraphs above, as if set forth herein in their entirety.

69. By committing the foregoing acts of discrimination against Plaintiff, Defendants violated the PHRA.

70. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of the PHRA, Plaintiff has sustained the injuries, damages, and losses set forth herein.

71. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein.

COUNT IV – PFPO

72. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the paragraphs above, as if set forth herein in their entirety.

73. By committing the foregoing acts of discrimination against Plaintiff, Defendants violated the PFPO.

74. Said violations warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

75. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of the PFPO, Plaintiff has suffered the injuries, damages, and losses set forth herein.

76. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein

Attorneys for Plaintiff,
Nancy Perilstein

EXHIBIT A

3. I, Nancy Perilstein, the Complainant herein, allege that I was subjected to unlawful discrimination because of my age (63), as set forth below.

Discrimination

A. I specifically allege:

- [1] I was hired by Respondents in or about April 2011.
- [2] I had more than nine (9) years of service at Respondents.
- [3] My birth date is March 15, 1957, and I am age sixty-three (63).
- [4] I consistently performed my job duties in a highly competent manner.
- [5] I last held the position of Specialist Leader.
- [6] My immediate supervisors included the following:

- (a) REDACTED (44¹), Advisory Managing Director;
- (b) Kelly Sauders (45), Advisory and Lead Healthcare Partner;
- (c) REDACTED (48), Advisory Managing Director;
- (d) REDACTED (50), Consulting Managing Director;
- (e) REDACTED (53), Advisory Partner;
- (f) REDACTED (54), Advisory Managing Director;
- (g) REDACTED (54), Advisory Principal;
- (h) REDACTED (75), Advisory Managing Director.

[7] I was the oldest employee in Respondents' Advisory Practice who was a Registered Nurse and held a Specialist Leader or Senior Manager position.

[8] In or about June 2017, in a meeting with Kevin Wijayawickrama (48), Health Care Provider Sector Leader, I asked to be promoted to Managing Director. We discussed the steps I needed to take to be promoted.

[9] I acted on the steps I needed to take to be promoted to Managing Director, including obtaining significant and increased sales.

[10] During 2018, Sauders began communicating with me less and assigning me fewer tasks and responsibilities.

[11] In or about February 2018, Sauders excluded me from attending and presenting at a bi-annual Compliance conference that I had attended previously. I received no explanation as to why I was excluded from attending and presenting at the conference.

[12] Instead of me, the following employees were invited to attend and present at the Compliance conference, all of whom were substantially younger: REDACTED (29), Manager; REDACTED (32), Manager; and REDACTED (33), Senior Manager.

[13] I was excluded from attending and presenting at the Compliance conference because of my age.

[14] On February 28, 2018, in a meeting with Wijayawickrama, he told me that I should accept a demotion from Senior Manager to Specialist Leader. The stated reason for demoting me was that there were too many Senior Managers at Respondents. Wijayawickrama asked me if I had plans to retire. I responded that my mother worked until she was eighty-two (82), and I hoped I could do the same.

[15] On March 7, 2018, in an email to Wijayawickrama, I questioned why I was being asked to accept a demotion to Specialist Leader. I stated that my sales for the year had been my best performance to date, and that the relationships I had cultivated with my clients suggested I was best aligned with the work of a Senior Manager, not a Specialist Leader. I asked why Wijayawickrama had stated that there were too many Senior Managers at Respondents, what was prompting Respondents' decision to analyze head count by title, and why my title needed to change. I expressed my disappointment that it appeared I would not be promoted to Managing Director, which was a goal I had ever since I began my employment at Respondents.

[16] Wijayawickrama responded to my email by reiterating there were too many Senior Managers, that he thought I was aligned to be in the Specialist Leader position, that nothing would change except my title, and that Specialist Leaders had smaller sales requirements.

[17] On multiple occasions between February and September 2018, Wijayawickrama, Sauders, and REDACTED (50), Managing Partner, contacted me to ask whether I was going to accept the Specialist Leader position, look for employment outside of Respondents, or remain in a Senior Manager position with the understanding that there were too many Senior Manager and, therefore, I may soon be out of work.

[18] In or about July 2018, in a meeting with Sauders, she asked me if I had plans to retire. I responded that my mother worked until she was eighty-two (82), and I hoped I could do the same.

[19] In or about September 2018, I was demoted to Specialist Leader.

[20] Respondents demoted me to Specialist Leader because of my age.

[21] Respondents failed to promote me to Managing Director because of my age.

[22] Sauders continued to assign me less work and my responsibilities decreased.

[23] Instead of me, Sauders assigned the work and responsibilities to substantially younger employees, including to the following employees. I was more qualified to be assigned the work and responsibilities than the substantially younger employees, including the following, who were assigned the work and responsibilities.

(a) REDACTED (29), Manager;

- (b) REDACTED (30), Manager;
- (c) REDACTED (31), Senior Manager;
- (d) REDACTED (32), Manager;
- (e) REDACTED (32), Manager;
- (f) REDACTED (33), Senior Manager;
- (g) REDACTED (34), Senior Manager;
- (h) REDACTED (35), Senior Manager;
- (i) REDACTED (38), Manager.

[24] Saunders removed work and responsibilities from me because of my age.

[25] In or about September 2018, I was instructed to train substantially younger employees, including REDACTED (30), Consultant, and REDACTED (32), to do my job.

[26] In or about August 2018, when I secured a significant account for Respondents, Saunders prevented me from working on the account and assigned the account to REDACTED (38).

[27] In or about October 2018, Saunders assigned REDACTED (32) to a project for a client I had been working with previously. After the client requested my expertise on the project, Saunders instructed me to review the work.

[28] Saunders continued to remove work from me and exclude me from meetings and communications related to my job duties and work I had previously been assigned.

[29] Saunders assigned work and projects that had previously been assigned to me to substantially younger employees, including REDACTED (30) and REDACTED (38).

[30] On June 8, 2020, in a phone call with REDACTED (50), Principal – Risk and Financial Advisory Health Plans Sector Leader, and REDACTED (40), National Risk &

Financial Advisory Campus Recruiting Leader, Respondents terminated my employment, effective the next day, June 9, 2020. The stated reason was business conditions at Respondents as a result of the impact of COVID-19.

[31] Respondents terminated my employment because of my age.

[32] On June 24, 2020, on a phone call with [REDACTED] he asked me to work for Respondents as a subcontractor.

[33] Respondents offered me a work as a subcontractor, instead of retaining me as an employee, because of my age.

[34] At the time of my termination, the following substantially younger employees were retained in positions for which I was more qualified. Respondents assigned my job duties and responsibilities to substantially younger employees, including to the following employees. I was more qualified to perform my job duties and responsibilities than the substantially younger employees to whom Respondents assigned my job duties and responsibilities and who were retained when I was terminated.

- (a) [REDACTED] (29), Manager;
- (b) [REDACTED] (30), Manager;
- (c) [REDACTED] (31), Senior Manager;
- (d) [REDACTED] (32), Manager;
- (e) [REDACTED] (32), Manager;
- (f) [REDACTED] (33), Senior Manager;
- (g) [REDACTED] (34), Senior Manager;
- (h) [REDACTED] (35), Senior Manager;
- (i) [REDACTED] (38), Manager.

[35] Respondents retained substantially younger employees in positions for which I was more qualified when I was terminated.

[36] I had no opportunity or option to remain employed with Respondents.

[37] I had no disciplinary or performance issues throughout my employment.

[38] Before the termination meeting, I had no indication my job was in jeopardy.

[39] I had conversations with other older employees at Respondents, including Pichini (75), who felt that they were being pushed out because of their age.

[40] Respondents recently terminated and/or pushed out the following older employees: REDACTED (75); REDACTED (68), Specialist Leader; REDACTED (65), Specialist Master; REDACTED (63), Specialist Master; REDACTED (62), Specialist Leader; REDACTED (60), Specialist Leader; REDACTED (56), Senior Manager; REDACTED (55), Specialist Master; REDACTED (55), Specialist Leader; REDACTED (55), Senior Manager; REDACTED (55), Senior Manager; REDACTED (53), Senior Manager; REDACTED (52) Senior Manager; REDACTED (51), Senior Manager; REDACTED (51), Specialist Leader.

[41] Respondents have replaced older employees with, and assigned older employees' job duties to, substantially younger employees.

[42] Respondents have a pattern or practice of demoting and/or pushing out and/or terminating older employees.

[44] Respondents' conduct and comments evidence a bias against older employees.

[45] Respondents' age discrimination against me has caused me emotional distress.

THE EEOC IS CLOSING ITS FILE ON THIS CHARGE FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON:

The facts alleged in the charge fail to state a claim under any of the statutes enforced by the EEOC.

Your allegations did not involve a disability as defined by the Americans With Disabilities Act.

The Respondent employs less than the required number of employees or is not otherwise covered by the statutes.

Your charge was not timely filed with EEOC; in other words, you waited too long after the date(s) of the alleged discrimination to file your charge

The EEOC issues the following determination: The EEOC will not proceed further with its investigation, and makes no determination about whether further investigation would establish violations of the statute. This does not mean the claims have no merit. This determination does not certify that the respondent is in compliance with the statutes. The EEOC makes no finding as to the merits of any other issues that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.

The EEOC has adopted the findings of the state or local fair employment practices agency that investigated this charge.
